

2023–24 First Quarter Finances

- Ontario's economy has shown resiliency in 2023 in the face of elevated economic and geopolitical uncertainties. In the first calendar quarter of 2023, Ontario's real gross domestic product (GDP) increased by 1.0 per cent, following a decline of 0.2 per cent in the fourth quarter of 2022. As of the first quarter, Ontario's real GDP was 4.9 per cent above the pre-pandemic level in the fourth quarter of 2019.
- As of the 2023–24 First Quarter Finances, the province's 2023–24 deficit is projected to be $1.3 billion — unchanged from the outlook published in the 2023 Ontario Budget.
- Ontario's net debt-to-GDP ratio is projected to be 37.6 per cent in 2023–24 as of 2023–24 First Quarter Finances, 0.2 percentage points lower than the 37.8 per cent forecast in the 2023 Ontario Budget.
- Ontario completed $10.0 billion in long-term borrowing in 2023–24. The 2023–24 long-term public borrowing is now forecast to be $27.5 billion, unchanged from the 2023 Budget. Ontario's annual long-term borrowing program in 2023–24 is forecast to be the lowest borrowing program since 2016–17.

Liquidity

- Ontario balances the objective of minimizing the cost of holding liquid reserves against the need to always have enough cash on hand to pay its bills, invest in capital assets, refinance maturing debt and pay interest.
- As of August 11, 2023, liquid reserve levels were $51.7 billion.

Average Unrestricted Liquid Reserve Levels ($ Billions)

Note: As of July 31, 2023.

2023–24 Borrowing Program

As of August 14, 2023, approximately $10.0 billion or 36 per cent of the $27.5 billion 2023–24 long-term borrowing program has been completed, primarily in Canadian dollars.

2022–23 Borrowing Program

As of March 31, 2023, borrowing completed for 2022–23 totalled $32.2 billion.

*Face value $2.5 billion.

Note: Numbers may not add due to rounding.

Long-Term Borrowing

- The majority of borrowing completed so far for 2023–24 has been in Canadian dollars and a A$35 million Australian dollar bond.
- Ontario has continued to extend the term of its debt, when investor demand allows, to reduce refinancing risk on maturing debt. This also protects the interest on debt forecast against further increases in interest rates. Ontario has issued $127.5 billion of bonds, or more than one-quarter of total debt, with maturities of 30 years or longer since 2010–11. This includes $10.3 billion in 2022–23 and $3.4 billion so far in 2023–24.

Green Bonds

- Ontario remains the largest issuer of Canadian dollar Green Bonds, totalling $15.0 billion with $13.0 billion outstanding. A total of 28 projects have received or will receive funding from Ontario's thirteen Green Bond issues, with funding allocated towards clean transportation, energy efficiency and conservation, and climate adaptation and resilience projects.
- On February 28, 2023, Ontario issued its second Green Bond in 2022–23, and thirteenth Green Bond overall. This issue was for $1.5 billion and followed a $1.0 billion issue in October 2022.
- Ontario is updating its Green Bond Framework. The update may include better alignment of framework categories with the Green Bond Principles through standardized wording, as well as the possible expansion from green to sustainable to allow for a greater breadth of potential bond offerings in the future.
- Ontario plans to continue its leadership role in the Canadian dollar Green Bond market and, subject to market conditions, will issue multiple Green Bonds each fiscal year, including in 2023–24.

Features:

- Carry the full faith and credit of the Province of Ontario
- Rank pari passu with Ontario's other bonds and are payable without any preference or priority
- Are direct unsecured obligations of the Province of Ontario and investors do not assume any specific risk related to the funded projects
- Serve as an important tool to help finance public transit initiatives, extreme-weather resistant infrastructure, and energy efficiency and conservation projects

Assurances:

- Ontario's Green Bond Framework was developed in consultation with the Center for International Climate and Environmental Research — Oslo (CICERO)
- Ontario's Green Bond program aligns with the Green Bond Principles maintained by the International Capital Market Association
- An assurance audit is performed by the Auditor General of Ontario verifying amounts allocated to selected projects and tracking the amount of Green Bond proceeds

Fiscal Outlook

- Revenues in 2023–24 are projected to be $204.4 billion, largely unchanged compared to the forecast in the 2023 Ontario Budget.
- Program expense in 2023–24 is projected to be $190.6 billion, also largely unchanged from the outlook presented in the 2023 Ontario Budget. New commitments announced since the release of the 2023 Ontario Budget are primarily funded through existing contingencies within the fiscal plan.
- The 2023 Ontario Budget included a $1.0 billion reserve in 2023–24 to protect the fiscal outlook against any unforeseen changes in the province's revenue and expense forecasts. The $1.0 billion reserve has been maintained as part of the current fiscal outlook.
